The resolution further recommends simplicity and inexpensive dressing for schoolgirls of all ages. Congress is asked to adopt an anti-polygamy amendment to the Constitution and to enact such legislation as shall bring about uniform marriage and divorce laws in all States.

This resolution was much in line with the address by former Senator Frederick T. Dubois, who apoke at the morning seasion of the convention. Mr. Dubois deplored the fact that polygamy existed in the United States.

Mr. Dubois' Speech.

This resolution is a sum of the fact that polygamy existed in the United States.

Mr. Dubois' Speech.

He said, in part:
"I doubt very much whether Congress will ever pass the legislation which is being asked of it in regard to polygamy and the liquor traffic.

In a cablegram to President Wilson, received at the White House last night, the International Peace Bureau, at Brussels, Belgium, congratulated the President on his acceptance of the offer of mediation made by the other powers. The communication follows:

"The pacifists of the world heartly congratulate the United States government for having without hesitation accepted the mediation of friendly powers, and so given a solemn testimony of its sincere desire to settle by pacific means all international disputes. The United States government remains the leader in the cause of universal peace."
